MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES DELIVERY AND FINANCING - AN ANNOTATED BIBLIOGRAPHY

The bibliography provides an overview of the writings of clinicians, administrators and researchers, and gives direction to those desiring further in-depth exploration of this literature. It has been especially prepared for those involved in planning and decision-making in the mental health field. Administrators, legislators, government and private third-party organizations, consumer and citizen groups should find it of value. The focus is on the social, economic and political realities which characterize mental health services today, as we move into the Age of Accountability.
